

The Alliance for Young Artists & Writers celebrates the creative achievement of America's teens and brings their remarkable work to a national audience through The Scholastic Art & Writing Awards founded in 1923. Students who excel in the visual arts and creative writing participate in The Awards to earn recognition, get their work exhibited or published, and to earn scholarships.

Each year, the Alliance partners with more than 100 regional affiliates across the country to bring the program to local communities. Teens in grades 7 through 12 can apply in 30 categories of art and writing for the chance to earn scholarships and have their works exhibited or published. Submissions are first judged locally by a panel of renowned artists, educators and arts professionals. Those works receiving top honors regionally are then submitted for national adjudication.

Regional Awards

Gold Key: The highest level of achievement on the regional level. Gold Key works are forwarded to New York City for national adjudication.

American Visions & Voices: Works named "Best of Show" for each region.

Silver Key: Works worthy of recognition on the regional level.

Honorable Mention: Work demonstrating artistic potential.

Serving San Antonio's youth, SAY Sí is a year round, long-term, multidisciplinary arts program that provides students opportunities to develop artistic and social skills in preparation for higher educational advancement and professional careers.
